

ISS Course Syllabus

Teacher: Carla Sadler
Course Title: World History

Grade: 10
HS Credit Value: 1.0

Course Description: The course will begin with a review of Revolutions in France and Latin America, leading to the Industrial Revolution, and continue to Present Day. Students will be encouraged to look at history objectively by analyzing viewpoints of the different parties involved in significant time periods and events

Course Contents:

The Sweep of Revolutions in the West

- Revolutions in France and Latin America (Review)
- The Industrial Revolution
- Revolutions in Everyday Life and Politics

The Interval of Western Dominance

- The Surge of Imperialism
- World War I
- The Soviet Union: The First Communist State
- Nationalism, Revolution, and Dictatorship
- World Depression and World War II

The Era of Global Interdependence

- Europe, the Cold War, and the Superpowers
- The Assertion of Independence in Asia
- The Struggle for Self-Rule in Africa
- Economic Growth and International Tension in the Middle East
- The Struggle for National Development in Latin America
- An Interdependent World

Resources:

- History and Life (Scott, Foresman, and Company, 1993).

Evaluation System: Both formative and summative assessment will be used. Students will be expected to complete homework and class work. Research and project work, as well as chapter tests will be used for evaluation.

Additional Comments: